

Dead

Sunsleep

Oh, I won't wait till the sunrise I'm getting out of this place tonight
Down six feet deep in the mud lies what's left of me
'Cause now you're dead, dead, dead, dead
Dead to me
Can someone get me out of my head so I can breathe? (So I can b reathe?)

So drink the blood from the holes that you still bleed

Don't wanna let go, but all we were is dead
(In my heart, in my soul, in my head)
Don't wanna let go of everything we've had
Now that all we were is dead
All we were is dead

I can barely hear an echo, you let go
Buried me so low that I couldn't hear you run
Now I'm chasing all the time that we wasted, broken and faded
Now the damage has been done

And don't you ever try and come back
I built these walls on the death of love
So drink the blood from the holes that you still bleed

Don't wanna let go, but all we were is dead
(In my heart, in my soul, in my head)
Don't wanna let go of everything we've had
Just gotta let you know that all we were is dead
Cold as the winter comes, I'm finding shelter from the wind
Now that all we were is dead

(All we were is dead)
And don't you ever try and come back
I built these walls on the death of love, oh

Don't wanna let go, but all we were is dead
(In my heart, in my soul, in my head)
Don't wanna let go of everything we've had
Just gotta let you know that all we were is dead
Cold as the winter comes, I'm finding shelter from the wind
Now that all we were is dead
