

Drifting Away

Sunsleep

Tell me why we drifted apart
Was I the anchor while you were the stars?
Just different pieces of the same universe?
I fell in love with the heavens above me
Got drunk off the sight of something lovely
Laid me down in your world
The ocean floor was aglow
(Then I don't need you) to fill the void above
(And I feel brand new) without your touch

(Down here drowning, we're in the deep)
(Drifting away from a memory we keep)

Then when it's over, you've still got a price to pay
And you've got to hold on when all has washed away
I'm bleeding out, bleeding out to prove
Broken down into something new
And then when nothing seems the same love

Remember where you came from
(Remember where you came from)

I turned away from the night sky
Dug deep in the ruins that I left behind
Learned to wait for the morning before we say goodbye
And then you got me in the head
I know it's something that you said
Don't wanna wait 'til you confess
I break the walls within my chest

(Down here drowning, we're in the deep)
(Drifting away from a memory we keep)

Then when it's over, you've still got a price to pay
And you've got to hold on when all has washed away
I'm bleeding out, bleeding out to prove
Broken down into something new
And then when nothing seems the same love

Remember where you came from
Remember where you came from, yeah

Now I'm down in the deep end
'Cause you've got me believing
There was never a ceiling
And I see it, yeah
Oh woah, yeah, ooh

Then when it's over, you've still got a price to pay
And you've got to hold on when all has washed away (All has washed away)
I'm bleeding out, bleeding out to prove
Broken down into something new
And then when nothing seems the same, love
Remember where you came from
