

Fever

Sunsleep

(Ooh-ooh, ooh)

(Ooh-ooh, ooh)

Slow me down, 'cause I've been losing track
The clock keeps ticking, my head is spinning, feels like a heart
t attack
Breathing out the chaos from within We've grown heavy-hearted, afraid and guarded, can we begin again?

(Ooh)

Feels like a heart attack

(Ooh)

Can we begin again?

Burning like a fever, someone get me out of this
Help me find the peace within
Thrown into the river, reaching out for a hand
Find a way out of my head

It's not the first time that I've felt the burn
Or the last time it comes on all at once
Oh, I know that it's all in my head
When these voices keep telling me, "You're better off dead"
Take me or leave me for all that it's worth
See through a lens that is clouded by dirt
It's an illusion we fight in our head
We all have the key to set ourselves free again

Burning like a fever, someone get me out of this
Help me find the peace within
Thrown into the river, reaching out for a hand
Find a way out of my head

It's not the first time that I've felt the burn
Or the last time it comes on all at once
Oh, I know that it's all in my head
When these voices keep telling me I'm better off dead

Burning like a fever, someone get me out of this
Help me find the peace within
Thrown into the river, reaching out for a hand
Find a way out of my head

Feels like a heart attack
