

Hellfire

Sunsleep

This fire has been building from the inside
Desire, if you get close to the flame, you'll burn
Tight wire, if you miss a step, you'll take a fall
Held up so high could touch the sky
While the fire rages on below
Hellfire
Hellfire

You keep it close to your bones why does it seem so wrong
When the fire burns, it feels so right
Locked up my soul in a hole you won't let go
Couldn't see you from the other side
Hellfire
Hellfire

Hellfire
When you cry out for me
Hellfire
Couldn't feel anything
Hellfire
Throw me into the flame
This love won't tame the burn
Hellfire

One sided in a conversation that you hold
Tongue tied and we're sinking to the depths, so low
I left the door open wide to let you know
Then you came in like the hellfire
Speak in a tongue so feral deceiving words
Stab me in the back
Noose around my neck
Hellfire
Hellfire

Hellfire
When you cry out for me
Hellfire
Couldn't feel anything
Hellfire
Throw me into the flame
This love won't tame the burn

Oh, and I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
And I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
And I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
Hellfire

You keep it close to your bones
And you won't let go

Hellfire
Hellfire

Hellfire
Throw me into the flame

Oh, and I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
And I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
And I feel the burn
(This love won't tame the burn)
Hellfire
