

Terrible Things

Sunsleep

Oh tell me how many times must we put up the fight
Left to our own devices time after time
Is it all in our minds when we only compromise
To choose our own demise and dose away while

These terrible things
I couldn't face the hurt
Ravaged all worth
It's a bitter truth that I deserve
These terrible things

We slip on inside in the barrel of gunfire
Then we pray to the nines that this chamber won't ignite
So give up the fight you can close your eyes for tonight
No this won't be the last time that we realize

These terrible things
I couldn't face the hurt
Ravaged all worth
It's a bitter truth that I deserve
These terrible things
They come alive in the night
Such a terrible lie
Oh tell me do we deserve
These terrible things
Oh these terrible things

If we reach down inside
Could we pull out the knife
Oh this could be the last time
That we realize

These terrible things
It's a lie that you feed
Oh these terrible things
No they don't mean a
Thing
You can ease the pain
Start over again
It's a simple truth we don't deserve

These terrible things
They come alive in the night
Such a terrible lie
I don't believe it's a curse
These terrible things
