

What We Bargained For

Sunsleep

Fill up the tank of our devotion (Yeah)
Ignite a flame of our desire
We give and take a foul emotion
Our final play of our design

Seems like we wanted more
Than what we bargained for
And now you're asking for more
Than what you bargained for

I can't seem to shake this ugly little feeling inside
(This ugly little feeling inside)
Searching for the strength to come out and give into the fight
(Come out and give into the fight)

So spill the guilt into the notion (Yeah)
Before you leave into the night (Baby please don't go)
I know these lies have left you broken
Oh won't you hang me for the crime

Seems like we wanted more
Than what we bargained for
And now I'm asking for more
Than what we bargained for

I can't seem to shake this ugly little feeling inside
(This ugly little feeling inside)
Searching for the strength to come out and give into the fight
(Come out and give into the fight)

Oh it seems that we wanted more
Than what we bargained for
Oh it seems that we wanted more
Than what we bargained for

Oh
