

White Tiger

Sunsleep

Saw it in a dream something lingering out there
Is it purity, strength, obscurity, aware?
Yeah, manifesting a conquest of the heart, yeah
She is closing in now reminiscing a vow of fate to lead us on

Higher than the depths of despair, you take me higher away

You take me higher beyond the veil
A white tiger awaits you there
The winter comes so cold and yet to take the throne a white tiger will prevail
A white tiger

Is this a miracle, something spiritual?
Oh yeah, captured in a scene dancing with a beast that reigns here
You wander on your own into a world far from home
Find a missing piece only once you'll see the answer that signifies destiny

You take me higher beyond the veil
A white tiger awaits you there
The winter comes so cold and yet to take the throne a white tiger will prevail

You take me there
A white tiger, a white tiger
