

Afterlife

Sunstorm

Jumping off from nowhere
Diving in the cold
Trembling like leaf out in the wind

Carrying your damnation
Out to where you go
Turn your back to what you have behind

Taking all the power that you have
Inside your soul
Bringing rock'n'roll to this world

Devil is dancing for you
Planning for you
Another afterlife
Sins will be all forgiven
Fears will be beaten
In your afterlife

You will raise above
This desperate souls
If you sell your life to what you love
Tricking destiny
Trapping all your setbacks
You can ride the beast if you believe

Taking all the power that you have
Inside your soul
Bringing rock'n'roll to this world

Devil is dancing for you
Planning for you
Another afterlife
Sins will be all forgiven
Fears will be beaten
In your afterlife

Devil is dancing for you
Planning for you
Another afterlife
