

Burning Fire

Sunstorm

How could I be so blind
While you taking me down
How could you leave our past behind
I felt I could fly so high
Reality bring us to the ground
Thought I could touch the sky
Oh oh

Give me a reason to forget
Even if I know it's not now
Tell me why are my eyes wet
And why it was about
I remember all the times we shared
Never thought you could be a liar
We were stronger than the flames
In a burning fire

I thought those eyes could never lie
Lies bring me to my knees
There's a price every time I try
Oh yeah yeah yeah

Give me a reason to forget
Even if I know it's not now
Tell me why are my eyes wet
And why it was about
I remember all the times we shared
Never thought you could be a liar
We were stronger than the flames
In a burning fire

I remember all the nights we had
I'm about to take you higher
We are never to be
In a burning fire
Ohhh ohhh ohhh ohh ohhh
Never planned to let you go
Ohhh ohhh ohhh ohh ohhh
Locked up forever now I know

I remember all the times we shared
Never thought you could be a liar
We were stronger than the flames
In a burning fire
I remember all the nights we had
I'm about to take you higher
We are never to be [?]
In a burning fire
