

Love's Gone Wrong

Sunstorm

Restless heart in neon nights
Looking for you, but you're nowhere in sight
Whisper your name, it's a lonesome echo
Been through the change, but I can't let go

Love's a wave washing over you
Love's a battle of hearts that wound
I can only take it so long

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong

Searching so hard for somebody new
But they can't replace the way I feel about you
Running for cover, I try to break free
Memories of love keep following me

Love's a wave washing over you
Love's a battle of hearts that wound
I can only take it so long

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong

I don't know where this love's gone
I don't know where this love's gone wrong
Love's gone wrong
