Stronger

Sunstorm

Take a look at what we left undone
Tell me what I'm here to fight for
I'm not like any stranger
I fought life for so long
I'm not just a believer
I got the strength to hold on

The rain will be falling
The tears will start coming
Is this life afterall?
The heart will be aching
Words will be mistaken
Is this the game we want?

I'll be stronger right by your side
We'll take cover and shelter
Our love from the world

This song of mine always
Brings me back
The memories of when
We were strong
I'm not like all the strangers
Hiding from themselves
I'm like any believe
That takes it for true

The rain will be falling
The tears will start coming
Is this life afterall?
The heart will be aching
Words will be mistaken
Is this the game we want?

I'll be stronger right by your side
We'll take cover and shelter our
Love from the world
