Ima pop a xan ima champion (xan ima champion)
Only man with a lantern
Walkin through the fog of this ambien (gone off this ambien)
She think me ambient
I be off the shits I ain't braggin
She banned, she break amulets
Now this lil bitch owe me magic
I don't want lavish
I want favela favela (favela favela)
And power forever
Favela favela (favela favela)
Forever and ever

I'ma demon a devil
Believe that your special
Think people are evil
With good in theirs hearts
There no good in my heart
I am nothing but trouble
Run away from me baby

I'm tryna warn you
Killin me softly I'll mourn you
My Pops left before I turned two
Between her and her and I'm torn too

Ahhhhhh
I'll figure it out
Drunk in an alley
Blunt in my mouth
Your bitch is calling like come to the house
So we can fuck and then cum on the couch
Ahhh
I'll figure this out
I just need time to think
And I could use some wine to drink
Cause I'm bout to throw up and can't find the sink
Ahhhh
I'on have time to blink
Life could change in the blink of an eye
Jumpin off the roof cause you think you can fly
And I never worry bout shit that ain't mine, NO

I'm lying to myself I settle my self while talking to myself
I only think of my myself so I keep to myself and I smoke by myself
