

Jon The Crow (Robb's Wedding)

Supa Bwe

Who got money for show fare? Raise your hands
Oh wow we only got enough for four of us
That means one of us ain't going
Hey if I ain't going... Ain't nobody going
Man geez the genius has struck again

Everybody hates me but I'll save the world
Lonely, lonely as I unfurl
I don't need them getting bony, feed the bros
Lonely, lonely Jon the Crow

Look, I'm under what?
Gentlemen this is democracy manifest
Have a look at the headlock here
See that chap over there
Get your hand off my penis!
This is the bloke who got me on the penis people
Why did you do this to me?
For what reason?
What is the charge?
Eating a meal
A succulent Chinese meal

A red light
With no snow
We're skinless head
And rouge lions
As they pretend
We tend
We're all wolves
We fell in love

Everybody hates me but I'll save the world
Lonely lonely as I unfurl
I don't need them getting bony feed the bros
Lonely lonely Jon the Crow

A nice headlock sir
Ahhh yes I see that you know your judo well
Good one
And you sir
Are you waiting to receive my limp penis?
How dare
Get your hands off me
Tata and farewell
