Even though it hurts, I still love you
I'll always remember you
The breakup is over, my love

You're my rose
In the night I miss you
My sad story that ended too quickly
You're my rose
In my weary heart
My sad story that ended too quickly
How to say

Yo, that sad ending where you leave
What should I do with the remaining feeling, I'm trippin'
Oh, no, oh
I've gone crazy for you, I'm lost it
Today, my reflection in the mirror
I'm not a psycho, not a psycho
If I happen to run into you while walking on the street, I might go crazy
Maybe that'll happen
The sky is unusually clear, but my mind is dark
When the sun sets, I get depressed, it's another world
I step outside, take a deep breath
And then your thoughts come back

(You're my rose) I'm inherently selfish
I keep thinking I want you back
(You're my rose) Originally, all breakups are like this
But still, I keep thinking I want you back
I'm sorry babe, I'm sorry babe
I'm sorry babe, I'm sorry babe

You're my rose
In the night I miss you
My sad story that ended too quickly
You're my rose
In my weary heart
My sad story that ended too quickly
You're my rose
In the night I miss you
My sad story that ended too quickly
You're my rose
In my weary heart
My sad story that ended too quickly

The girl I loved has left
The girl I loved has left

I can't say anything as she walks away
