Where Is She? Oh, Where Is She?

Where Is She? Where Is She?
Where Is She? Oh, Where Is She?

In this dusk town the rain's falling again
Repeating endlessly this memory is pain
My heart is soaking wet, I'm getting cold
Even so I wanna meet you, I miss you

I called 11 times and you didn't answer the telephone
I tried again and undoubtedly the same

Where are you now? Hey girl
What are you doing now? Hey girl
Who are you with now? Hey girl tell me
Where is she? Where is she?
Where is she? Oh, where is she?

It's okay if it's not because of me as long as you laugh
As long as I can hug you with this hand just one more time
Even if the rain's falling I don't need umbrella
Because I'm going to see you, I miss you

Even if I beg like this hundred times

It's definitely won't come true, I knew it

The next time that traffic light change to green
Human wave gonna start moving slowly
Stop manipulating my feeling more than this
I started running with my heart as it is

(What you looking for girl)

Where is she? Where is she?
Where is she? Oh, where is she?
