I'm ready for you now

Within the many stars scattered in the darkness
Set the scene like a comet
The many stars that are
Stronger than ever

While born and gone
Gets stronger in the time passed
A name that's been said countlessly
Our meaning, I'll show you well today

Flames burst everywhere
Spreading the world hot
It gets bigger, this stage is completely
Flipped over and swallowed whole
Without exception to the fiery passion
Carved all over my body, deep in the heart

I'm ready for you now
Scream bigger, loud
I'm ready for you now
Throw everything in every moment
On this rough road, I've defended myself
Those five letters are now
Beyond being the first and becoming the best
Going higher, shout out to the world
I'm ready for you now

Lights, camera, action we go
Beyond the limits
Once again Super Junior
Keep the atmosphere like this
Break the mold, shattering it
Spreading over to the end
Really rare
Now, shout out to us once more

Infinite energy, thrilling again
Shake everything
This is our time, let our light shine
Burn it brighter

I'm ready for you now
Scream bigger, loud
I'm ready for you now
Throw everything in every moment
On this rough road, I've defended myself
Those five letters are now
Beyond being the first and becoming the best
Going higher, shout out to the world
I'm ready for you now

Ready for you now
I'm ready for you now

How many wounds have I endured
Fiercely fighting ourselves
Never been easy
Over time I'll wake up
The glory of tears, the weight of the crown
I ensure they don't lose their light

(I'm ready for you now)
Scream bigger, loud
Throw everything in every moment
