

Too late

Super Junior

My heart is too late
Like this again, too late

This place where you stood and waited for me
How much more did we go awry?
With what heart did you turn around?
Only your long sighs are heard in the wind

You said it was love and I just laughed
I didn't know anything like a fool
As you watched my faraway heart
You put on a painful smile

Like this again, I'm too late
This time again, too late
Every time, I'm too late and I lose you
My heart is too late, no way

If I turn the corner over there
I feel like I could meet you
Your coffee is already cold
My present is your past

You were getting farther and farther away and I didn't know
Maybe I was the only one who always felt drunk
When I asked you to give me a chance to say sorry
You just looked at me with an empty expression

Like this again, I'm too late
This time again, too late
Every time, I'm too late and I lose you
My heart is too late, no way

In the end, it's you Woo
I'm selfish, I know
But I can't wake up from the happy dream
So I'm at the same place again

Like this again, I'm too late
This time again, too late
(Don't say I'm too late)
Every time, I'm too late and I lose you
My heart is too late, no way
(I'm always too late)

I'm sure you know
I break down without you
I can't endure it
Where you passed by, where love vanished
I can't take a single step away
And I can't even hold onto you
