

Postpone

Super Whatever

Postpone my love
And take it all cuz I've got plenty
And that's enough for me

A solid lung
And three whole years with my little ones
Why do I feel crushed
By the weight of everything

So I
Postpone my debt
Postpone my love
Postpone another
Postpone the check
Postpone what's next
Postpone the suffering
I'll postpone what's left
Postpone it all
But it's all for nothing
I'll cast my bets

Postpone my debt
Postpone my love
Postpone another
Postpone the check
Postpone what's next
Postpone the suffering
Postpone it all
But it's all for nothing
I'll cast my bets
'Cause death is coming

Why do I
Keep touching all of my bones
[?] suffering alone

I go outside
And speak to a bird in the sky
I passed you by
You barely even notice that I'm alive

So I
Postpone my debt
Postpone my love
Postpone another
Postpone the check
Postpone what's next
Postpone it all
I'll cast my bets

Brace myself for a softer landing
Anxious mind never realized

It's not helping

So I

Postpone my debt
Postpone it all
I'll cast my bets
'Cause death is coming

Postpone my debt
Postpone another
Postpone the check
Postpone what's next
Postpone it all
I'll cast my bets
'Cause death is coming!
