

Sober.

Super Whatevr

Skeletons, on the wall
Tell me that you're gone
But I won't let you go away
And my mission is to fall
When did I feel safe
Guess I'm gonna bring you down

Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down
Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down

Ambition so I wrote
Bring me back to life
And tell a story without lying
Pessimist, you're a thief
Eat the words you spoke
Won't live a minute without dying

Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down
Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down

Maybe when I'm sober
I can keep a straight face
Why won't you come over
This gon' bring us down

Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down
Girl you're so inviting
I can't stay away from
Ever keeping silent
This gon' bring me down
