I search for the light of hope in this pitch black darkness Why dear God
did you choose her

Even though my dearest was always with me
Dear God help me
it's too late to pray anymore

Ah, I finally realize losing your presence
That day time stopped for the world erasing your presence

The person who tells me the words
I want to hear is already...
Dear God, if you exist return her to me right now

Ah, I finally understood losing the significance of you Stop time for the world for all eternity erasing my presence, all of it
