

Certain Stars

Superchunk

Hotel telephone exchange rates not what they use to be Horrible fox and hounds oil painting hanging over me
Cathode ray tube the only sane room, we're undone now
You have to bring your night style with you're if you're going out

Certain stars put me to bed
Certain stars, certain stars
You bought the sign, you believe what you read
Certain stars, certain stars
Certain stars swim around in my head
Certain stars, certain stars

Fake wool itchy blanket could never keep me warm
While in the house some planet rising will bring on a lightning storm
And if you squint that portrait could be anyone
Just let me have my same old illusion and keep your fun

Certain stars put me to bed
Certain stars, certain stars
You bought the sign, you believe what you read
Certain stars, certain stars
Certain stars put me to bed
Certain stars, certain stars

Certain stars put me to bed
No matter where you are
Swimming around in my head
Certain stars
