

Everybody Dies

Superchunk

Oh that's impossible, you said
I was just trying
To get that song out of my head
It never made me cry and
Everyone is sleeping
Or everyone's at lunch
And everything is beautiful
And everything just sucks

Well I was happy in a world of wishful thinking
And outright lies
But I'm beginning to think
Everybody dies
Everybody dies
Oh everybody dies
Everybody, everybody
Everybody, everybody oh
Oh-oh

Oh this is doing in my head
Yeah I was just asking
Who else was dancing at that party
When the floor collapsed?
You can lash yourself to comets
Or sink your feet in muck
Close your eyes to hear "Black Flowers"
Count all your good luck

But I was happy in a world of wishful thinking
And outright lies
But I'm beginning to think
Everybody dies
Everybody dies
Oh everybody dies
Everybody, everybody
Everybody, everybody oh
Oh-oh

And I was happy in a world of wishful thinking
And outright lies
But I'm beginning to think
Everybody dies
Oh everybody dies
Yeah everybody dies
Everybody, everybody
Everybody, everybody oh
Everybody, everybody oh
Oh-oh
