

Everyone Gets Crushed

Superchunk

Doot doot doo
Everyone gets crushed
And every kind of love rushes out
So what are you trying to protect?

Doot doot doo
Everyone gets crushed
And every kind of love rushes out
So what are you trying to protect?

Doot doot doo
You're never gonna save yourself like that
You're only gonna drag yourself through brackish waters
So take your hands down off your neck

What's the world you made with scissors
Paper glue annoys like blisters
Whispering to you
It's a clue
It's the world you're living in

Doot doot doo
Everyone gets bought
And every promise rusts 'til it's broken
So who'd you give the keys to lock?

Doot doot doo
If you think you're paranoid
You've probably got a reason
So pay attention who you select

Doot doot doo
Everyone gets crushed
And every kind of love rushes out
So who are you trying to protect?

What's the world you made with scissors
Paper glue and lies have sisters
Whispering to you
It's a clue
Of the world you're living in
What's the world you made with scissors
Paper glue annoys that kisses
Whispering to you
It's a clue
It's the world you're living in
