

Highly Suspect

Superchunk

Washing out again
I'm keeping my elbow bent
An angle I pretend
It's casual
Oh, I'm just pouring water from my shoes
And drinking through the news
Spinning out so hard
It's radical

And you've been highly suspect
Of my cheerful affect
And you, you were right
It's a construct every time
You've been highly suspect
And you, you were right
Every time

Imagine all the time and energy
We could light small cities
If we just ignored
The scolding from the walnut galleries
Oh oh, disable filters
Oh oh, ignore small blisters
Keep your protocol
It's fanciful

And you've been highly suspect
Of my cheerful affect
And you, you were right
Oh, it's a construct every time
But you've been highly suspect
And you, you were right
Every time
Every time
Every time
Every time

Oh, you were right (Every time)
Yeah, you were right (Every time)
And I've been highly suspect (You were right)
Yeah, I've been highly suspect (You were right)
You were right
