

Invitation

Superchunk

When I told you
I never thought you'd believe me
And you took my offer
Doubled it back up on me
And now it hold on, expect you
Decision, pull her tightly
Never said the same thing
But they don't mean the same thing

And we will have our little scene
Set it up with lights and cameras
For one minute we will be
Just for the sake of being
And then we'll try hard to forget it
