

The Hot Break

Superchunk

It's been a year since we've spoke
Just leave your world, I'm tongue and cheek
I hear numbers and [?] names and things
It's hard to remember what they mean

I love you so much but you're not here
Even though it's been years
I love you so much but you're not here
It's how we disappear

And you're so close
Yet just like ghosts
And you're so close now

Well if the world bites your tongue
Ready or not, I'm taking it
And your bit on the tongue was no mistake, I admit

Your heart is a red blinking light
On a radio tower
And you will find me some night
Yeah, you'll find me some night

I love you so much but you're not here
Even though it's been years
I love you so much but you're not here
It's how we disappear

And you're so close
Yet just like ghosts
And you're so close now
