

Trash Heap

Superchunk

Arranged by color
By pattern a [?]
The right things in their place
There's room for a new one

The pile, the mess, the trash heap
The smile, the caress I might keep
The pile, the mess, the trash heap
The cotton dress, I can't sleep

I need a name, I need a number
I need a piece of paper
I need a button marked static
And I feel better

The pile, the mess, the trash heap
The smile, the caress I might keep
The pile, the mess, the trash heap
The cotton dress, I can't sleep

Hold the mirror up to me
Hold the mirror up to me
Hold the mirror up what do you see?
