

Keep Me Coming

Superfruit

You know I wanna stay the night
You got me on the floor confessing
Lead me on and you change your mind, oh
You keep me second guessing

You tear me into pieces
That's alright
You torture and you tease me
That's alright
I'm running out of reasons
That's alright
Cause you take it away, take it away
And I want it back

You keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
I know you know I want it
You keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
You keep me coming
You keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
I know you know I want it
You keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming, keep me coming back

Call me up and I'll be there in five
You got me at your door confessing
No, I can't be all alone tonight
Oh, you keep me second guessing

You tear me into pieces
That's alright
You torture and you tease me
That's alright
I'm running out of reasons
That's alright
Cause you take it away, take it away
And I want it back

You keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
I know you know I want it
You keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
You keep me coming
You keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
Keep me coming back for more
I know you know I want it
You keep me coming

Keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
You keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
You keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
You keep me coming back for more
Keep me coming
You keep me coming back
