

Stare At The Void

Superheaven

Consciousness is feeling like I hit a wall
Stop a sentence just to stare off
Conversations have me at a loss
I need to go
I guess I'm running away

It's like I'm under my own sky
It's like a new shade of blue
It's always hiding in plain sight
It's only real if you lose

Stare at the void

Wheels are spinning faster than the speed of light
Kill my body just to feel right
Why can't I try?

It's like I'm under my own sky
It's like a new shade of blue
It's always hiding in plain sight
It's only real if you lose

I'll just stare at the void
I think I feel it stare right back

It's like I'm under my own sky
It's like a new shade of blue
It's always hiding in plain sight
It's only real if you lose
