

'cause It's Too Late

Support Lesbiens

This is the very last day of our great relation
Rainbow coming up on this strange occasion
Thy to change the rain clouds or I'm in your bed
I would give anything for the glow in your head
Save your honeys and think of hate
I feel I'm losing I think we'll stray because of nobody
Nobody my friend, you better watch the sky and stars
Before it's too late, my mind says it's too late
I stray because it's too late, I pray for a god
But too laate
You think you can have, but it's too fast to catch
Someone spits in your face confusion is great
You'd rather save your honey's and think of hate
I feel I'm losing I think we'll stray 'cause of nobody
Nobody my friend you better watch the sky and stars
Before it's too late
Inner space, I feel like a black hole
Sucking everything into my soul
Why is never an answer, it's always a question
But nobody knows how I feel ort he line
Inner space inner time inner rhythm inner mind
Of my own I've got to find a life a soul a hope
Inside a free zone
You think you can have, but it's too fast to catch
Someone spits in your face, confusion is great
