I'm easy coming, easy, souls are spinning
To hide our rage behind the smile with some strong actin'
Just make a place for a mind and souls should lose it's cover
And make is strong, make is stronger without being liar
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
Way down I think this really matters
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
I sad start making really growing
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
Way down I think this really matters
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
I sad start making's really growing
Easy come but it's easy go
It's like a chain or saw better like to crawl
You'd better leave your chance I'm tired o fit
You wanna get a new license like a bit
You wanna recall, your recall
Loose the shit you gotta be tall
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
You wanna betray your eyes
But it's hard to be together
Easy coming for your lover
You get me running in places I will never find
Easy come but it's easy go
It's like a chain or saw better like to crawl
You'd better leave your chance I'm tired of it
It's like a chain or saw better like to crawl
You'd better leave your chance I'm tired o fit
You wanna get a new license like a bit
You wanna recall, your recall
Loose the shit you gotta be tall
I wanna easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
You wanna betray your eyes
But it's hard to be together
Easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
Way down I think this really matters
Easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
I said start making's really growing
Easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
Way down I think this really matters
Easy come to put your loving there
Easy come to put your loving better
I said start making's really growing
