

Midnight Sun

Support Lesbiens

Will it be tomorrow?
When no one's feeling sorrow
When there's nothing scored, do you still win the prize?
Will it be tomorrow?
When no one's feeling sorrow
When there's nothing left growing in the fields outside?
When you're kneeling at your shrine, do you cry?
As you're drowning in your tears
Do you come back to life?

I'm going down with the fading sun
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
I'm going down with the fading sun
(fading sun)
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
(midnight sun)

Nobody left to follow as I walk in the shadows
Everything's going wrong, nothing wants to go right
It feels a long time ago now since we sat in the meadow
Back then you were the only thing I had in my sights
When you're kneeling at your shrine, do you cry?
As you're drowning in your tears
Do you come back to life?

I'm going down with the fading sun
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
I'm going down with the fading sun
(fading sun)
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
(midnight sun)

I'm going down with the fading sun
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
I'm going down with the fading sun
(fading sun)
I'm cooling down in the midnight sun
