Fighting For You

Surf Mesa

Bare bones
I'm half of what I was
I thought I was careful
But it wasn't enough
Don't you let me go
Baby I can tell
You're enjoying the power that you have
Just be careful
You might bleed me out

You're a shot to the chest
I don't know what to do (ooh)
And I keep fighting myself
While I'm fighting for you (ooh)
I used to look for every exit sign
But it's too late now to get out (so)
I keep fighting myself
While I'm fighting for you

Floating
Around in troubled waters
Knowing
The edge is around the corner
But I won't let go
Baby you can tell
That I'm too foolish for my own best
Hopelessly
Searching for nothing

You're a shot to the chest
I don't know what to do (ooh)
And I keep fighting myself
While I'm fighting for you (ooh)
I used to look for every exit sign
But it's too late now to get out (so)
I keep fighting myself
While I'm fighting for you

I used to look for every exit sign
But it's too late now to get out (so)
I keep fighting myself
While I'm fighting for you
