When Your Ex Wants You Back

Surface

It's hard to resist the attack
When your ex says he wants you back
It's hard to be good and do right
When your ex wants to spend the night

(Your ex wants you back, baby)
(Your ex wants you back)

It's hard to resist the attack
When your ex says he wants you back
It's hard to be good and do right
When your ex wants to spend the night

I got a call from my ex one day
He says he's back in town and wants to play
Another man's in my life right now
I'm dedicated and I took a vow

Remembering good times
We used to spend together loving so right
He makes me weak inside
I run but I can't hide
He wants to take me back to yesterday

It's hard to resist the attack
When your ex says he wants you back
It's hard to be good and do right
When your ex wants to spend the night

Guess who showed up at my door last week?
He held me gently and kissed my cheek
He's pulled on my déjà vu
I miss the things that we used to do

Remembering good times
We used to spend together loving so right
I stopped the pain aside
I run but I can't hide
I can't get away from yesterday

It's so hard to resist the attack
When your ex says he wants you back
It's hard to be good and do right
When your ex wants to spend the night

Hard to say no to your heart
It's hard to let go off your heart

My new man stand by my side
Our love is true, I can't deny
Now my ex is back and love is crumbling down
I've got "ex attack"

It's so hard to resist the attack
When your ex
It's hard to be good and do right
When your ex

Hard to say no to your heart
It's hard to let go off your heart

(Your ex wants you back, oh yeah)
(Your ex wants you back, baby, baby, oh yeah)

Your ex wants you back
