

Falling Again

Surfaces

Falling again, I really wanna know
Are we just friends, or is it just a pure
Coincidence, no way to really know
I've heard it all before

Falling again, I really wanna know
Are we just friends, or is it just a pure
Coincidence, no way to really know
I've heard it all before

Back when we met, couldn't find us alone
Sunrise, sunset, we would talk on the phone
The time we spent, thought that you had me chose
I'm turning to stone

Oh I don't know what the future holds
I'm tangled up in the words you chose
Can you give me a sign, so I know
Or is this how it goes (cause I'm)

Falling again, I really wanna know
Are we just friends, or is it just a pure
Coincidence, no way to really know
I've heard it all before

Falling again
Falling again

Free fall so hard, no parachute
Lost with no cause, I need a clue
Is this not us, tell me the truth
I'm ten and two, still crashing into you

Oh I don't know what the future holds
I'm tangled up in the words you chose
Can you give me a sign, so I know
Or is this how it goes (cause I'm)

Falling again, I really wanna know
Are we just friends, or is it just a pure
Coincidence, no way to really know
I've heard it all before

Falling again
Falling again
