

Find A Way

Surfaces

Write it off, you've had a couple bad lines
Filling up the page but I know you've nearly had enough
Sign it off, you had a couple bad guys
Find yourself alone, losing hope that you'll be the one

Someday, I wanna be your bright side
When you've made the climb to unwind what you're feeling
Keep pace, I'm gonna break the chain tonight (yeah)

I'm gonna find a way
To be your great escape
From all the same mistakes
I'm gonna find a way

I'm gonna find a way
To be your great escape
From all the same mistakes
I'm gonna find a way

I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna find a way

Can't stop the speed of the feeling
Ain't no such thing as the ceiling
Break through to heights that you never knew
Now you do

Don't keep it on the low
It's time to shake the cold
It's nothing but a hold
It's nothing but a hold

I'm gonna find a way
To be your great escape
From all the same mistakes
I'm gonna find a way

I'm gonna find a way
To be your great escape
From all the same mistakes
I'm gonna find a way

I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna find a way
I'm gonna find a
