

Yeah, mmm

We could have a house
We could have a lawn
We could have the whole wide world if you want
'Cause baby we're golden
Baby, we're golden
We could have the sun
We could have the moon
We could have the whole wide world in view
'Cause baby we're golden
Baby, we're golden (Yeah)

Oh I know in this life all you feel is the chase
I know you keep your dreams locked up in the safe
I know you want a beach and a dog and a four-car garage
And your own little place by the bay (By the bay)

I don't know why it pays to say but
You can't buy peace of mind with all these things
So picture us anywhere, we're never late (We're never late, baby)

We could have a house
We could have a lawn
We could have the whole wide world if you want
'Cause baby we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
Baby, we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
We could have the sun
We could have the moon
We could have the whole wide world in view
'Cause baby we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
Baby, we're golden, golden
Ooh-Ooh

I see you're hoping for a moment
I hope you know that the door is open
Meet you 'round back ('Round back)
Take a picture, every angle is where we can go
I hope I find you thinking 'bout that and

I don't know why it pays to say but
You can't buy peace of mind with all these things
So picture us anywhere, we're never late (We're never late, baby)

We could have a house
We could have a lawn
We could have the whole wide world if you want
'Cause baby we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
Baby, we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
We could have the sun
We could have the moon
We could have the whole wide world in view
'Cause baby we're golden (Baby, we're golden)
Baby, we're golden, golden

Woah-woah
Ooh-Ooh

Woah-woah
Ooh-Ooh
