

Real Estate

Surfaces

It's a long drive, long way
Go anywhere in the world, despite the wait
Baby, I don't mind the wait
You got the same door, new paint
Make it worthwhile when I hold you now and again
Can I hold you now and again?

'Cause baby I'm lost in the real estate
Of your mind, it's my favorite place
I'm back in my old space
Tear it down, just to renovate
I'm lost in the real estate
Of your mind, it's my favorite place
I'm back in my old space
Tear it down, just to renovate, yeah

It's been a long time, long day
Spend anything on you despite the change
Baby, I don't mind the change
You got the same floor, new stain
Make it worthwhile when I see you now and again
Can I see you now and again?

'Cause baby I'm lost in the real estate
Of your mind, it's my favorite place
I'm back in my old space
Tear it down, just to renovate
I'm lost in the real estate
Of your mind, it's my favorite place
I'm back in my old space
Tear it down, just to renovate, yeah

(Oh yeah, oh yeah)
(Tear it down, just to renovate, yeah)
(Oh yeah, oh yeah)
(Tear it down, just to renovate)
