

Someday

Surfaces

Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way
Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way

You know I can relate, I know how you feel
Looking for the answers, searching for what's real
But you don't have to question, if you have all you need
Cause there's a universe inside of you
Just wait and see, see, see
Just wait and see, see, see
Just wait and see, see, see
Just wait and see, see, see

Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way
Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way

You don't have to listen, to that voice inside
Telling you that light you have will never shine
Take a journey outside, open up your eyes
Radiate yourself and
Never let it hide, hide, hide
Never let it hide, hide, hide
Never let it hide, hide, hide
Never let it hide, hide, hide

Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way
Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way

Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way
Ohh, and that rain gonna wash away
Someday
Ohh, and the love gonna find a way
Some way
