

Unconditional

Surfer Blood

You say that I'm a part of you
Now what am I supposed to do?
I hang on
We hang together or separate
We hang together or separate

Turn to another empty page
Feels like I've been asleep for days
I'm out of sight
I'm out of your mind
Any time you slip away

You say you love me most of all
You say it's unconditional
So tell me
Do we have secrets between us?
Do we have secrets between us?

Turn to another empty page
Feels like I've been asleep for days
I'm out of sight
I'm out of your mind
Any time you slip away

There's nothing perfect in this world
Nothing you can't run away from
There's nothing perfect in this world
So why's the running so easy?
