

Drift

Surfer Girl

A road to nowhere in the crosshairs
My face is smilin heart is vacant
Quarter-life crisis in a lawn chair
God forbid the world is waiting

Hopelessly floating in the moonlight
Tellin myself that we'll be just fine
Feels like lately I've been tongue tied Lookin for a moment lookin for a moment lookin like

Oooh I hope I drift into you, the way you drift into me the sec ond that I need it
Ooooh can't help but drift into you, the way you drift into me, this love is never leaving

Sometimes I'm scared the world is over Sand castles crumble and they cave in If its with you I'll stay awake through it all Won't be blissfully ignorant or jaded

Hopelessly floating in the moonlight
Tellin myself that we'll be just fine
Feels like lately I've been tongue tied
Lookin for a moment lookin for a moment lookin like

Oooh I hope I drift into you, the way you drift into me the sec
ond that I need it
Ooooh can't help but drift into you, the way you drift into me,
this love is never leaving

This love is never leaving
This love is never leaving

Hopelessly floating in the moonlight
Tellin myself that we'll be just fine
Feels like lately I've been tongue tied

Lookin for a moment lookin for a moment lookin like Oooh I hope I drift into you, the way you drift into me the sec
ond that I need it
Ooooh can't help but drift into you, the way you drift into me,
this love is never leaving
