

So easy, you remind me
Of a story I was told
Young girl on a journey
To a land down the road

Remember the rainbow
The bluebirds all came home
I left one on your doorstep
Head resting, heart sold

Go easy, she's just like me
It's her story, she needs time
There's no place like her own place
Dreams of home, hers and mine

Remember the rainbow
The bluebird will come home
You'll find me on your doorstep
Head resting, heart sold

I'll keep coming back to you
Always coming back

It's easy, so you told me
Write a story, take your time
If clouds are far behind me
Then tell me, why can't I?

I'll keep coming back to you
Always coming back

Not easy, but believe me
In my own time, I will try
