

I Think

SuRie

I expect nothing from you anymore
It's been quiet in my head for a while
No craving, no crying, no need to caress
It's ok for you to go, I guess

This has been going on for so long now
The best talks we have, when we're apart
The pulling, the pushing, I'm bored of it all
It's ok for you to go, I think

But please don't run
When you walk away
And please don't cry
When you say goodbye
Please don't sleep with her too soon
It's too soon to let that go
I'm not ready for that, no
I think

But please don't run
When you walk away
And please don't cry
When you say goodbye
Please don't sleep with her too soon
It's too soon to let that go
I'm not ready for that, no
I think

I expect nothing from you anymore
It's been quiet in my head for a while
No craving, no crying, no need to caress
It's ok for you to go, I guess
