Rye

SuRie

If your body meets her body
Don't look her in the eye
Save your body for somebody right

If you're looking, validation
Don't look it in the eye
Save your love for some other light

Pull away, have you ever felt like this before?
Fool away, now

If your body caught her body
Coming through the rye
In the moment, lost in wonder, why

Pull away, have you ever felt like this before?
Fool away,
Save it up, all your sweet, sweet kisses
Save it up, all your sweet, sweet kisses

If your body meets my body
Look me in the eye
Let's go under in another life
