

The Right Yellow

SuRie

Finding the right yellow
Making the right stroke
I'm always one step forward, more steps back, I know

I don't make things easy
Keep you on your toes
Always one leap in, then skirting back I go

For one so independent
I really love love
I need a hand to hold and a heart to hug

Let's build our house in the country
I'll try to stick around
Let's lead a life together
I'll try not to let you down

I'm looking at paints
Finding the right yellow

For one so independent
I really love love
I need a hand to hold and a heart to hug

Let's build our house in the country
I'll try to stick around
Let's lead a life together
I'll try not to let you down

I'm looking at paints
Finding the right yellow
You are my sunshine already

Oh, I know, oh, I know, oh, I know
You are my sunshine already

Oh, I know, oh, I know, oh, I know
You are my sunshine already

Oh, I know, oh, I know, oh, I know
You are my sunshine already

Oh, I know, oh, I know, oh, I know
You are my sunshine

I'm looking at paints
Finding the right yellow
