

Just So You Know

Survive Said The Prophet

If we can believe it
I can just feel like we'll prove
Everything that we wanted
Isn't that what you wanted?

It started out with a feeling
As this reality finally comes and gets you to restart
Could instinct gamble on dreaming
Not knowing is just the start to finding what we're looking for
It's not all for nothing

Learning how to take
Every little piece of our mistake and glue them to use
Finding out what makes the truth
Just so you know
If this life was to restart again
I wouldn't have it any other way
Just so you know
If this life would take my breath away
I wouldn't mind it next to you
So come and take my breath away

A man who's lost in desire
With all his wisdom to share
His heart's emptied out by fools
He kept on gambling on dreaming
Not knowing where he belonged
He found his own way back to prove
It's not all for nothing

Learning how to take
Every little piece of our mistake and glue them to use
Finding out what makes the truth
Just so you know
If this life was to restart again
I wouldn't have it any other way
Just so you know
If this life would take my breath away
I wouldn't mind it next to you
So come and take my breath away

If we can believe it
I can just feel like we'll prove
Everything that we wanted
Isn't that what you wanted?

If we can believe it
I can just feel like we'll prove
Everything that we wanted
Isn't that what you wanted?

Just so you know
If this life was to restart again
I wouldn't have it any other way
Just so you know
If this life would take my breath away
I wouldn't mind it next to you

So come and take my breath away
