Survive Said The Prophet

I'm afraid, you're afraid
And I know it can't make sense sometimes
I'm a jerk, you've been hurt
We're the worst mistake we'll ever make, but □□□□□□□□□□ [Romanized:] shiritai koto no hibi o fuyashite
Trying not to take it all for granted
□□□□□□□□□□ [Romanized:] shiritai kimi to hibi o fuyashite
Wanted to believe it's not for nothing

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?

Am I insane for holding on?
Finding a place I could belong
Then call me crazy
But I'm not giving up on how you make me dream

Twinkle like a shining star I notice how you are Wish upon a lonely heart but you don't care at all
Give me something, anything to keep me dreaming
Trying not to hurt, playing with this curse
Hoping that tonight that you will find me

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?
So long, farewell, goodbye
Auf Widersehen, goodnight
I need you here tonight
Would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out
Used to be content but I'm wanting now
If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out (So long, farewell, goodbye)
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out (auf Widersehen, goodnight)
Used to be content, but I'm wanting now (I need you here tonight)

Would you stay a little longer?

Ticking like the clock still I'm waiting out (So long, farewell, goodbye)
Counting every dot still I'm waiting out (auf Wiedersehen, goodnight)
Used to be content, but I'm wanting now (I need you here tonight)

If I stay the night, would you stay a little longer?
