

I Resign

Susanne Sundfør

I have found peace
Where it's impossible to rest
And no one can fool me any more
This story night I caress and I bless

I found what I've been looking for
And I wanted more and more
And grey skies, I don't fear them
'Cause this starry night gives a lot of room for birds and metaphors

And I resign, I resign
I resign
Singing

Hallelujah
Show me all the glory
Celebrate our freedom from poverty and hell
And you sing hallelujah
And you show me all the glory
You embrace our eternity
And you tell me that I'm not a sinner

Ah ah ah ah
Oh I know
I am not a sinner

I am not alone any more
I am guided from mountain to shore
And there is nothing left to fear, and I
I will follow you, I will turn to you
You are the one I adore

And I resign
I resign
I resign
Singing

Hallelujah
Show me all the glory
Celebrate our freedom from poverty and hell
And you sing hallelujah
And you show me all the glory
You embrace our eternity
And you tell me that I'm not a sinner

Ah ah ah ah
Oh I know
I am not a sinner

Everything is worthless
Just believe and that is all it takes
And baby, you know you should
Prayer is a language we never understood

Just resign, oh resign
Just resign
Sing

Hallelujah
Holy glory
Celebrate our freedom from poverty and hell
You embrace our eternity
And you tell me that I'm a sinner

You embrace our eternity
And you tell me that I'm not a sinner
