

One by one you fall from grace
Seperate you by their tales
Simulations almost gone
But the sorrow's still in your bones
They don't know your deepest fear
That you can't escape from here
They don't know the pain you feel
Thinking of what might've been

Endless flow
Inexhaustible
One with the sound of it all

Mmm-mmm-aaah
La la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
Aah-aah-aah
Open your eyes and begin again

They'll try to force it
Metamorphosis
But everything aligns with
A mysterious purpose

Nourish the children
Listen for laughter
Those who love the mother
And the power of the flower

There'll be endless flow
Inexhaustible
One with the sound of it all

Mmm-mmm-aaah
La la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la la
Aah-aah-aah
Open your eyes and begin again
