

Everywhere

Susie Suh

Love you like a bumble bee loves a flower
Love you every minute of every hour
I love you like the desert loves the sun
There's no use denying that you're the only one

Everywhere I go I feel your breath on my skin
Holding me tightly, pulling me in
Everywhere I go I hear your voice in my head
Whispering sweet nothings

Love you like the stars love the moon
Oh, I love you like a bear that loves bamboo
I love you like the mermaid loves the sea
There's no use denying that you were made for me

Everywhere I go I feel your breath on my skin
Holding me tightly, pulling me in
Everywhere I go I hear your voice in my head
Whispering sweet nothings
Everywhere I turn I see your face in disguise
Staring at me with those pretty blue eyes
Everywhere I go I feel your hand on my hand
And I know that you understand

Love you
Oh, I love you
There's no use denying it

Everywhere I go I feel your breath on my skin
Holding me tightly, pulling me in
Everywhere I go I hear your voice in my head
Whispering sweet nothings
Everywhere I turn I see your face in disguise
Staring at me with those pretty blue eyes
Everywhere I go I feel your hand on my hand
And I know that you understand

Everywhere I go I feel your breath on my skin
Holding me tightly, pulling me in
Everywhere I go I hear your voice in my head
Whispering sweet nothings
